

Leadership in Philanthropy Award Nomination Guidelines

Award Description: Leadership in Philanthropy Award - Presented to an Anne Arundel County legislator who has shown exemplary leadership and support in the advocacy of the nonprofit community. Types of advocacy work honored in this category could include legislative action, systems change, civic engagement.

Nomination Process:

- ✦ Individuals may not nominate themselves.
- ✦ Nominees will receive a recognition letter from CFAAC upon receipt of the nomination form. The letter will include information on the nomination and selection process.
- ✦ A selection committee, to include local nonprofit and community leaders, will review all nominations and select the awardee.
- ✦ Following the selection, and prior to the public announcement, nominees will receive a letter notifying them of the results.

Nomination Narrative: Provide a written statement that includes specific information illustrating how the individual's leadership and advocacy has a positive impact on nonprofits in Anne Arundel County. Include evidence and clear examples of what makes your nominee so exceptional. Nominations should be limited to 500 words and include no more than three supporting documents.

Start with a clear, direct, and specific statement of why the nominee deserves recognition. Include enough information for the selection committee to become familiar with the nominee's specific type of advocacy work which could include legislative action, systems change, or civic engagement. List the most important information in the first few sentences and then elaborate, as necessary.

Provide specific examples that address the award description and elaborate on why the nominee's accomplishments are worthy of the award. Examples should include the activities and qualities that make this person outstanding, and that are clearly relevant to the Leadership in Philanthropy Award description.

- WHAT did the nominee do?
 - Projects and/or activities
 - Any challenges or issues encountered and overcome
- HOW did they do it?
 - Initiative and/or leadership
 - Teamwork
 - Creativity and/or innovation
- WHAT were the results and/or impact?
 - What did the nominee's efforts accomplish?
 - Are there specific benefits that have derived from those efforts?

Describe how others regard the nominee. Consider mentioning major awards and/or the nominee's other education, community, etc. efforts.

Be thorough in including examples of how organizations in Anne Arundel County benefit from the nominee's support. This will enable the selection committee to fully understand the nominee's involvement in the community and breadth of impact. The best way to ensure that you have included everything is by asking your nominee for input!

How to Write a Winning Nomination

- Share the big picture – collaborate with other individuals and organizations to tell your nominee’s story.
- Determine who can write the best letters of support.
- Talk with your nominee, their family, and friends. Collect as much information as possible.
