It has been 20 years since a small group of caring residents decided that Anne Arundel County deserved to have a community foundation to enjoy the immediate and long-term advantages that generous individual, family, and business community members can provide for its residents. The Community Foundation of Anne Arundel County (CFAAC) exists to grow philanthropy for the benefit of the community now and for future generations, and we are so proud of how far we have come.

This report offers many reasons to celebrate our donors, partners, and community members who are making a real difference every day in our community. Important milestones for CFAAC over the last year can be seen in our growth. At the end of 2018, CFAAC reported more than $15 million in assets which included $3.7 million in new gifts. In addition, CFAAC opened 12 new funds and distributed 338 grants totaling over $2.3 million dollars in support of our community. The following pages share information and stories of our success and the names of those who are helping CFAAC meet the needs of our county.

The past year has been one of transition. In the Spring of 2018, CFAAC embarked on a search for a new President and CEO to continue to build on its successful 20-year journey. With our 2017-2020 Strategic Plan in place, a strong and committed Board of Trustees, and a talented staff, the organization was well prepared for this leadership transition. In the fall, CFAAC leadership meetings led to important conversations about the future of the community foundation and reaffirmed a clear direction and action plan to move forward.

CFAAC’s Board Governance and Nominating Committee recruited a stellar and dynamic new class of 2019 Board Members, welcoming Katherine Caldwell, Jennifer Pratt and Karen Whaley. With a strategic objective of establishing the CFAAC Board of Trustees as a “Board of Choice” in the community, these new appointments add further evidence of our commitment to recruit the very best and brightest community members to join the CFAAC Board. We also thanked and acknowledged the exemplary service of three long-time Board Members, Danny Boyd, Kathy Brooks and Cindy O’Neill, as they fulfilled their term limits.
Building our reputation as a community leader, CFAAC continues to make progress on many fronts, bolstering strong management systems to ensure financial strength and sustainability, improving donor services through responsiveness and technology, partnering with nonprofit and government agencies to strengthen cross-sector collaborations, offering new and improved grant-making capabilities, and identifying key performance metrics in relation to best practice models for national community foundations.

New community support programs continue to catch the attention of our donors and we are very pleased to announce that through an exciting matching gift challenge, CFAAC has raised close to $600,000 for our new Fund for Anne Arundel initiative, well on our way to securing a $1 million-dollar fund. This fund has been established to help provide support to organizations focused on the greatest needs in our county as identified in our most recent Community Needs Assessment Report, Poverty Amidst Plenty VI: On the Road to Progress for All.

Thank you for making 2018 a remarkable year for the Community Foundation of Anne Arundel County. We know it is possible to impact the lives of those in need by implementing bold initiatives to promote philanthropy in every corner of the county. CFAAC is stronger than ever because of our expanding list of donors, nonprofit leaders, public officials, and volunteers who come together to offer the kind of support that has a valuable and lasting impact on our community. As this next year unfolds, we look forward to building on the fabulous results demonstrated in this report and are grateful to you for taking this journey with us.

Strategic Plan for 2017 – 2020

The Community Foundation of Anne Arundel County recognizes the power of philanthropy to transform communities. Over the past 20 years, we have become the largest institutional funder in Anne Arundel County by awarding over $14 million in grants and scholarships.

Planning for the future of Anne Arundel County is crucial. As local, state, and federal funding continues to decline, private donors are called on to fill in the gaps. We have more opportunity than ever to develop partnerships that yield real solutions to seemingly intractable societal challenges. We believe that the priorities identified in CFAAC’s strategic plan will help to make a difference in strengthening communities and improving the quality of life for all residents in Anne Arundel County.

In addition to the traditional fund management and grant distribution services provided by community foundations, our strategic plan acknowledges and defines our community leadership efforts that go above and beyond providing high-quality philanthropic services. It further positions us as a convener of service providers, a thought partner, an advocate for local nonprofits, and a catalyst for innovative ideas and community problem-solving.

Below are our key strategic priorities; view the entire 2017-2020 Strategic Plan at www.cfaac.org.
CFAAC Offers Personalized Service By:

- Helping donors develop their philanthropic giving strategy to invest in the causes they care about the most.
- Administering grants and providing custom reports summarizing all activity.
- Partnering with professional advisors to create highly effective approaches to philanthropic giving, and offering flexible and carefully managed investment options.
- Accepting a wide variety of assets and facilitating even the most complex forms of giving.
- Offering the maximum tax advantage for most gifts under federal law.
- Allowing donors the opportunity to name their fund.

THANK YOU to our Volunteers
On June 28, 2018, a gunman forced his way into the Capital Gazette newsroom in Annapolis, killing five people and injuring two more. Officers responded within 60 seconds of the 911 call and found employees fleeing the building. The suspect was found hiding under a desk and was arrested.

Our community, along with the rest of the country, was shocked and heartbroken by the shooting. Although no one could imagine what the victims and their families were feeling, many people wanted to help. Businesses opened their doors to shelter the fleeing victims, people brought food and drinks and shared phones. Offers of both help and financial assistance poured in. A GoFundMe page was started that day to raise $100,000 and that goal was quickly met, and surpassed.

The following day, CFAAC was called to serve as the administrator of the Capital Gazette Families Fund, established in honor of the victims and to provide financial assistance to those directly impacted by the tragedy. Overwhelming support was received from thousands of individuals, businesses, and foundations in Annapolis, Anne Arundel County, across the country, and from around the world. Within days, thousands of donations were received designated to support the surviving employees of the Capital and the families of those killed. Ultimately, over $1.9M was raised specifically to support the employees and the victims’ families.

“Praying for each of the employees as they come to grips with this tragedy and for the families whose losses are unimaginable, in sympathy and support.”

- Donor

In an effort to fairly and transparently distribute the gifts for the direct benefit of the victims and their families, and in accord with the intent of the donors, CFAAC sought the advice of legal counsel, tax experts, and mental health experts. With their support and participation, the Capital Gazette Distribution Committee was formed.

Over the next month, CFAAC’s staff and committee spent countless hours researching the guidelines and protocols that other foundations across the country used to distribute gifts quickly and directly to victims, honor the donors’ intent, and ensure transparency. CFAAC’s Board approved the Distribution Committee’s recommendation that assistance would be allocated using the Horizontal Equity method. This distribution model was developed by attorney Kenneth Feinberg, in response to the 9/11 terrorist attacks and has been used by other foundations in similar situations.

On November 13, 2018, following an application process to verify eligible individuals, and upon recommendation of the Distribution Committee, CFAAC’s Board of Trustees approved the distribution formula that was used to calculate the gift amount each verified applicant received. The approved distribution formula allocated 80% of all dollars raised for those verified to receive Death Benefits and the remaining 20% was apportioned between the Capital Gazette staff members who were verified and approved to apply. The total amount distributed was $1,916,141.75.

We know that no amount of money can bring back those who were killed or erase what was witnessed and endured by the survivors, but we hope that the gifts can help the employees and families of the victims begin to heal.

“For the employees of the Gazette and those who lost a loved one, the transitions felt over the next few years will be very emotional and at times even physically difficult. We hope that these gifts will provide them with at least some financial comfort and support.”

“ As we all try and have life return to normal, I know each day is still hard for the staff, their friends, and family. We have not forgotten either, nor will we. We will continue to pray, asking for comfort and strength for all and be your biggest supporters.”

- Donor
Capital Gazette Families Fund

In support of our community, CFAAC waived all fees for the administration of this Fund so that 100% of the gifts received by December 31, 2018, specifically for the benefit of the victims and their families was distributed directly to them. In order for CFAAC to comply with Internal Revenue Service criteria concerning Charitable Funds which benefit individuals, the Fund has and will continue to accept gifts designated to provide opportunities for our community to heal from this tragedy. In 2019, CFAAC will form a committee made up of community members to determine how to best utilize these gifts for the benefit of our community.

Capital Gazette Memorial Scholarship Fund

The Capital Gazette Memorial Scholarship was created in memory of the lives lost during the tragic June 28, 2018, attack on the Capital Gazette newsroom in Annapolis, Maryland. This scholarship celebrates the lives of Gerald Fischman and John McNamara, alumni of the University of Maryland; Robert Hiaasen, an adjunct professor at the Philip Merrill College of Journalism; Wendi Winters, a reporter at the Capital Gazette; and Rebecca Smith, who worked on the Capital Gazette sales team. This scholarship will annually award the University of Maryland College Park Foundation, Inc. a grant to provide merit-based scholarships for undergraduate students in the Philip Merrill College of Journalism.

Thank you to the thousands of individuals, businesses, and foundations that made direct contributions to the Capital Gazette Families Fund and the Capital Gazette Memorial Scholarship Fund.

We are also grateful to the organizers, promoters, vendors, and volunteers that held special events in our community to support the victims’ families and employees of the Capital Gazette.

“A check was presented for the Capital Gazette Memorial Scholarship Fund by Ignite Annapolis.”

“We thank the Community Foundation of Anne Arundel County for organizing and facilitating the donation that came from all people who have donated and helped us. During such a tragic time, we are grateful for CFAAC volunteers and the generosity of our community. We want you to know that your hard work and effort have been greatly appreciated.”

“Please share these words to let the community know how much I appreciate their support more than I can say. To quote Lou Gehrig, while he was dying inside, he said nevertheless that he felt like ‘the luckiest man on the face of the Earth.’ On days when I feel very unlucky, this grand gesture, by the people of Annapolis and around the world, is very comforting and lets me know I am not always unlucky.”

- Andrea Chamblee, Wife of John McNamara

CFAAC Provides Local Expertise By:

- Providing insights about the issues, opportunities, and resources that shape our community.
- Monitoring all areas of community need including the arts, economic development, education, the environment, healthcare, and human services.
- Providing access to professional staff with broad expertise regarding community issues and needs.
- Serving as a local nonprofit with deep roots in the community.
Fund for Anne Arundel

There are tremendous unmet needs that remain consistent in Anne Arundel County ranging from affordable housing, food insecurity, lack of accessible and quality child care, homelessness, mental health treatment, substance abuse prevention and treatment, transportation, and many others as outlined in the Community Foundation of Anne Arundel County's (CFAAC) Community Needs Assessment, Poverty Amidst Plenty VI: On the Road to Progress for All.

One of CFAAC's primary goals is to increase the dollars that the foundation has available to strategically align grantmaking with the most critical needs in the county. The Fund for Anne Arundel is a fund created to help meet critical needs and improve the quality of life for all county residents, now and in the future.

With the support from the following donors, CFAAC is able to provide essential services and programs to build a brighter path and a healthier future for families in our community.

Understanding Community Needs

“The greatest strength of the Community Foundation of Anne Arundel County (CFAAC),” says Ann Glenn, Executive Director, Anne Arundel County Public Library Foundation, “is its unique understanding of the needs of the County. I see the needs of the Library because that is my job. However, I cannot know or understand the needs of everyone in the County. CFAAC is the one nonprofit that is looking out for everyone in Anne Arundel County and tries to bring about an increased understanding of important issues. They are serving an extremely important function. They keep an eye on the big picture.”

The Anne Arundel County Public Library Foundation was founded just over 10 years ago with the mission to raise private sustainable support from individuals, businesses, organizations, and foundations to develop an exemplary library system with enhanced library resources and services. Funds raised by the Library Foundation help support the Library’s strategic initiatives including: Every Child Ready to Read programs; connecting county residents to technology, the internet and virtual services; creating welcoming, accessible and functional spaces; and fostering community engagement at each of the 16 library branches in its service area.

The Library Foundation has had an Agency Endowed Fund with the Community Foundation of Anne Arundel County (CFAAC) for a little more than a year. “I knew a number of people involved with the Community Foundation who were leaders in the community. I knew if those individuals were giving of their time and reputations, then this was a good organization,” says Ann.

The Library Foundation has only two staff members. Fundraising, establishing relationships with community organizations and potential donors, and managing an endowment takes a lot of time. Ann says working with CFAAC frees up her time to network, organize events, and share information about the library. CFAAC provides the Library Foundation with efficient reporting, investment expertise, and answers her questions quickly.

Additionally, CFAAC educates the community about social issues affecting Anne Arundel County and offers the Library visibility in the community. The Library and CFAAC’s missions are in step with one another, which is to “build strong families and communities.”

For more information on Agency Endowed Funds, please call Amy Francis, Development Director at 410-280-1102 or email her at amy@cfaac.org.

Strengthening Nonprofits

The Strengthening Nonprofits Speaker Series is intended to leverage, align, and promote resources to better support nonprofit professionals in Anne Arundel County. Events focus on a variety of topics including board development, fundraising, marketing and communications, and nonprofit management education and training.

In 2018, international speaker and President of Board Builders, Carol Weisman presented How to Bring Your Board to the Fundraising Party. The event was attended by nearly 100 Anne Arundel County nonprofit staff and board members and was sponsored by the Anne E. Greenberg Leadership Fund, a fund at CFAAC that supports board leadership and development efforts.

In addition to CFAAC’s Strengthening Nonprofits events and trainings, the Community Foundation also supports local nonprofits through our Strengthening Nonprofits Fund which provides capacity building grants to Anne Arundel County nonprofits.

CFAAC staff participated in 15 Professional Development Training programs in 2018, remaining knowledgeable about national best practices for Community Foundations.
Patti Baum and Margie Jackson, long time financial advisors, formed their investment team, The Baum Jackson Investment Group, a division of RBC Capital Markets, more than 18 years ago to help private investors and institutions achieve their financial goals. Patti and Margie knew from the beginning that it was important to them to create a culture of philanthropy within their business. After asking a variety of community leaders about how to learn more, they were directed to the Community Foundation of Anne Arundel County (CFAAC). CFAAC’s staff team helped launch a philanthropy program that aligned with Baum Jackson’s strategic business goals. The Baum Jackson Investment Group Charitable Foundation was created with the purpose of building staff camaraderie and promoting corporate philanthropy. Patti and Margie believed that creating a sense of corporate social responsibility within their office was a positive way to foster team unity, invest in local nonprofits, and help the Annapolis community thrive. They realize that not everyone can donate money, but they encourage all members of the staff to participate, whether it be through a financial gift, reviewing grant applications, or volunteering their time. Collectively, the team is making an impact.

The focus of the Baum Jackson Investment Group Charitable Foundation is to support children and youth through education, financial literacy, and self-esteem building programs. The Foundation has supported organizations like Girls on the Run, Start The Adventure In Reading (S.T.A.I.R.), and youth-oriented films featured at the Annapolis Film Festival, among others.

“We can make a difference through our business. We have been fortunate in our lives and now we want to do our part by committing our resources to causes that matter,” says Patti.

CFAAC has helped Baum Jackson achieve their team’s goal of investing in the local community. When asked about CFAAC’s support of their business, Margie described the CFAAC staff as caring and knowledgeable. “CFAAC does a great job helping connect us with local community programs that are looking for grants,” she said. “I appreciate the personal attention the staff gives us. They are facilitators, making others, like us, aware of organizations and needs in our community.”

When asked what the future holds for CFAAC and Baum Jackson, Patti said “CFAAC will increasingly play a major role in the philanthropic community, as the economic divide in our county and state grows.” Both Patti and Margie believe CFAAC not only offers flexible ways to give, but it provides a valuable service in connecting programs in the local area in need of financial support.
CFAAC’s Community Leadership Circle is made up of generous donors who have committed gifts to support CFAAC’s operational budget to ensure long-term sustainability. These investments will make a real difference as CFAAC works to sustain our community today, tomorrow, and into the future.

2018 CFAAC ANNUAL REPORT
Community Leadership Initiatives

The Community Foundation of Anne Arundel County has experienced a dramatic makeover in recent years. CFAAC is proud to serve the county through the traditional functions of a community foundation - attracting donors, building endowments, and making grants. To stay on the cutting edge of services and programs, CFAAC adopted an increasingly proactive, strategic approach to philanthropy; one that has come to be known as “Community Leadership Initiatives.”

Through its Community Leadership Initiatives, CFAAC not only provides its high-quality philanthropic services to our donors, but also serves the community as a thought partner, advocate for local nonprofits, and a catalyst for new ideas and community problem-solving. In addition, CFAAC draws together various stakeholders to develop new solutions affecting positive change in Anne Arundel County through philanthropy.

Community Leadership Initiatives

Community Needs Assessment
This data-rich report is intended to increase knowledge and awareness and to frame informed discussions about persistent local trends and needs. It is used by nonprofits, community advocates, the faith community, volunteers, business leaders, elected officials, policymakers, government agencies, foundations, individual philanthropists, professional advisors, and others to prioritize and develop strategies and implementation plans with measurable goals to benefit everyone in the county.

Strengthening Nonprofits Collaborative
CFAAC leads this effort to leverage, align and promote resources to better support skills and training for nonprofit professionals to improve the effectiveness, capacity and efficiency of county nonprofits. Additionally, CFAAC hosts events which address challenges faced by almost all nonprofits.

Community Impact Speakers Series
CFAAC believes it is impossible to meet the challenges in our county if people don’t know what the challenges are. This Speaker Series offers programs designed to increase the awareness and knowledge of key issues impacting Anne Arundel County and to create the opportunity for dialogue.
Anne Arundel Estate Planning Council

The Council facilitates opportunities for wealth and estate planning professionals from various disciplines to interact, share ideas, and build relationships that allow them to better serve their clients and the community. CFAAC provides information to members about the needs in the county for them to share with their clients.

Community Grant Programs

- Strengthening Nonprofits - Provides capacity-building funding for nonprofit organizations to support training in board development, fundraising and development, marketing and communications, and nonprofit management.

- Grants 4 Teachers - Provides grants to Anne Arundel County Public School teachers to fund creative ideas that stimulate and inspire student learning.

- Help Our Neighbors - Provides support to local agencies that respond to urgent assistance for basic human needs for families (e.g. rent, utilities, licenses and certifications, transportation to work, essential medication, medical expenses).

- Fund for Anne Arundel - In 2018, we began fundraising for this strategic grantmaking that will align with CFAAC’s Community Needs Assessment to support local nonprofits that are addressing the community’s most critical needs.
The Community Foundation of Anne Arundel County is very proud to have donors who support a variety of CFAAC priorities including our Community Leadership Circle Fund which supports our operational budget, and sponsorship in support of our Annual Celebration of Philanthropy Awards Luncheon. This list also includes gifts to CFAAC funds that support the organization's strategic grantmaking including: Anne Arundel Arts and Culture Fund, Anne Arundel Environmental Fund, Fund for Anne Arundel, Grants 4 Teachers, Help Our Neighbors Fund, and Strengthening Nonprofits Fund.

Celebration of Philanthropy

In 2018, the Community Foundation of Anne Arundel County proudly hosted the 18th Annual Celebration of Philanthropy Awards Luncheon. The luncheon is a true celebration of what makes our community remarkable, including the individuals, businesses and foundations who demonstrate outstanding generosity by dedicating their time and treasure to support Anne Arundel County nonprofits. It is also an opportunity to celebrate CFAAC’s meaningful collaborations, increasingly powerful impact on critical needs, and bold leadership efforts in the community.

If you are 70 ½ or older, the Charitable IRA Rollover provides a unique opportunity to use retirement plan assets to make a significant gift to a qualified nonprofit organization without receiving taxable income on the withdrawal. To learn more, contact us at 410.280.1102.

Partnering with CFAAC will ensure the causes that matter to you will be supported for future generations. There are many ways to make a planned gift to CFAAC; Bequests, Charitable Remainder Trusts, Charitable Lead Trusts, Life Insurance, Retirement Plans and more. Contact CFAAC at 410.280.1102.

A Maryland state tax credit called “Endow Maryland” rewards donors who help build permanent charitable funds for local communities across the state and right here in Anne Arundel County. Endow Maryland allows donors to establish or add to an existing endowed fund at CFAAC and qualify for a 25% state tax credit on your 2019 tax return. Please contact CFAAC at 410.280.1102 for details.

CFAAC recognizes that the pooling of invested assets reduces administrative and investment-related expenses, allowing more money to go toward benefiting the social sector. A donor may wish to recommend that their contributed assets be invested outside of our pooled investments. For this reason, we have established certain guidelines for situations when a donor wishes to recommend a specific investment manager or management firm to hold his or her donated assets. To learn more contact CFAAC 410.280.1102.
